access to supported living supported living helps provide tenancy support to all those who need it. With our free and confidential help, you can achieve the right level of independent living that's perfect for you and your situation helping you make the next move

access to supported living

If you'd like to live independently but there are some things you struggle with or need help with, we offer the support you need. This includes helping you to find supported housing in an area you'd like to live in.

We also offer a special 'visiting' service, calling in at your present home and helping with the following day-to-day jobs or issues:

- we'll help you to safely manage your own money
- we'll help you fill out forms and claim all the benefits you're entitled to
- we'll help you deal with issues like finding a job, getting appropriate training, running your own home and caring for your health needs

Through supported living we will:

- help you get the help and support you need if you're being harassed, bullied or abused, or if you suffer from a mental illness
- help you get the support you need if have issues with drugs or alcohol
- help you to meet new people and get involved in local activities and social events
